Office of Financial Reporting (OFR) Overview

The Office of Financial Reporting (OFR) is the financial reporting office for the State of Mississippi. OFR's responsibilities include:

Preparing the State of Mississippi's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR).

Assisting state agencies in matters concerning governmental generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), including preparation of all state agencies' financial statements (GAAP packets).

Collecting federal grant information for inclusion in the Single Audit.

Preparing the Annual Report of Budgetary Basis Expenditures, a supplement to the CAFR.

Forms and instructions for preparing GAAP Packets can be accessed from OFR's web page at:
